

Lyndon's Salon • Boutique

Lyndon “Wayne” Watts began his career in cosmetology at 20 years old. After graduating from cosmetology school, he worked at a salon for six years before going out on his own. In 1990, he opened Lyndon’s Salon Spa. Voted one of Salon Today’s “Top 200 Salons”, they remain up-to-date with the latest trends by requiring staff to attend continuing education at Aveda Institute as well as in-house training sessions. Prodigy Salon & Boutique, the sister salon to Lyndon’s Salon Spa opened next door in 2009, catering to a younger clientele with a hip, friendly atmosphere.

Fast forward 22 years, he now has 20 employees with three locations. Lyndon “Wayne” Watts was able to buy land and build his newest salon and women’s clothing boutique in 2015 using the Revolving Loan Fund Program in partnership with Planters Bank. Lyndon’s serves clients in the Clarksville & Fort Campbell community.
